

Abstract of the Disclosure:

A fishing system is described that is mounted to a boat.

The fishing system has a housing, a mast supported in the 5 housing, and a first actuator connected to and rotating the mast. The first actuator is mounted on the housing.

A second actuator is connected to and pivots the housing.

By turning on the second actuator, the mast can be raised or lowered, as needed.

REL/cgm